

Mirostaw Markiewicz

Began building his professional experience in economic transformation period of the early nineties in the privatisation, acquisition and industrial investment transactions. Responsible for financial management of the largest glass packaging manufacturer in Poland. Involved in establishing European headquarters O-I Europe in Switzerland of O-I Inc. (Owens-Illinois), index S&P500 NYSE company.

Apart from glass business, served as management board member of national postal operator - Poczta Polska – during its transformation from state owned enterprise into joint stock company, responsible for financial management and regulatory matters. Supervised financial management of several other private and public companies listed on Warsaw Stock Exchange.

Graduate of Law Faculty, as well as Faculty of Management at University of Warsaw. Master of Business Administration of University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Completed postgraduate studies at Mendoza College of Business, University of Notre Dame and doctoral studies at Warsaw School of Economics – Collegium of World Economy.